

Eligibility: Major fields of study include, but are not limited to the following: plant science, plant physiology, soil science, botany, agribusiness, etc. Special interest in the seed industry is a plus. Anyone enrolling as an undergraduate junior or senior or graduate student is eligible. Funds will be made available to full-time students enrolling in a 4-year college or university.

Instructions: Application must be typewritten and must be completed in full or it will not be considered. Please note the criteria below used in evaluating your application. Include letter of recommendation and grades.

Criteria: Awards are given on the basis of the following criteria:

- Your affiliations through programs, events, tours and/or classes related to the seed industry. This includes your interest, current and future, particularly in the seed industry and agriculture in general.
- Your scholastic achievement and activities
- Essay
- Letter of recommendation
- Your financial need

Name: _____ Student ID#: _____

Email address: _____

Class (next year): Junior Senior Graduate

Indicate the college/university where you expect to use this scholarship if awarded:

Name of Institution: _____

Address (while at college): _____

Permanent Home Address: _____

Phone: _____

Major Field of Study: _____

Previous experience related to the seed industry or agriculture: _____

Intended occupation after completion of education:

Names of colleges/junior colleges attended:

List honors you received in competition with other students:

Do you presently hold a scholarship or assistance?

If yes:

From Whom:

Length/Amount:

What are your sources of financial support? (list)

List your level of involvement in college activities:

List your work experience:

Essay: “Why are you interested in agriculture, particularly as it relates to the U.S. seed industry?”

Please attach an essay of 500 to 1000 words (please note this is NOT a personal history).

Your official college transcript, mailed to us by your college, is necessary for you to qualify for consideration.

Eligibility and enrollment will be verified and scholarship will be sent directly to the college/university that you attend.

Scholarship winners will be notified following the annual meeting of the Pacific Seed Association, February 11-14, 2024. Applications must be postmarked by December 15, 2023.

If you are using the on-line fillable .pdf make sure you save a copy after you complete your answers.

Remember to save your information on your .pdf copy if you are using the on-line/fillable application.

Send your complete application to:

Pacific Seed Association

1521 I Street

Sacramento, CA 95814

FAX: 916-446-1063

Email: donna@agamsi.com